7:13pm - Wendy Pohlhaus Introduces Matt Graves, USOA

Matt Graves - opens with his Bio on career. Mr Graves spoke on increases in violent crime, but calls for a more fair and equitable justice system. He wants to focus on the individual offender. His office is now doing smart stuff around diversion programs.

Opens the meeting for Q&A

"We know that a handful of people are doing most of the crime in the District." Who and what is driving the problem.

Commissioner Henderson - (started court watch and heads it up) Explains it to the CAC

7:30pm - Matt Graves departs meeting

Chair Penn - introduces Assistant Chief Emerson, who greets the community and commits to return for a longer presentation.

7:35pm - 26 attendees

Commander Fitzgerald - "I really don't like these stats" Robberies and carjackings have increased. More guns are being found on the streets and more juveniles with guns. "He wouldn't argue with drivers and strangers in the streets anymore." Gave CAC the history and description of ghost guns.

Commissioner Henderson - spoke on how to use the power of elected office to make change. Thanks ANC Commissioners for service to the community.

Commissioner Salvador - Updates on crime being committed on latino workers in Trinidad neighborhood and how they don't always report it, because of language barrier and status. Calls for a strategy to help workers who are being robbed.

Commander Fitzgerald - "the strategy is the same and he doesn't have the budget with 50 less Officers." "New residents have unrealistic expectations and we must work together and be creative."
